

Edwards Ready To Oust Jersey Utility Board

Dismissal of All Present Members Expected to Follow the State Conventions Which Meet To-day

Fulfills Pledge to Voters

Commission Under Fire as Result of Rate Increases Granted to Companies

Special Dispatch to The Tribune.
TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 4.—In fulfillment of pledges made both in public utterances and in paid advertisements during his campaign a year ago, Governor Edwards will remove the members of the New Jersey Public Utility Commission from office within the next day or two. The Governor's dismissal of the board was expected to-day, but it was said at the State House this afternoon that his decision would not be announced until after the state conventions, which meet in Trenton to-morrow.

It has been learned on good authority that all of the four members of the board will be removed. Three of the members are Republicans and one a Democrat. The fifth member, Alfred March, of Middlesex, a Republican, resigned several months ago and his place was not filled. The new commission will be made up of three Democrats and two Republicans. Congressman James J. Jamill of Jersey City, a lawyer and a leading Democrat, is assured of appointment, and a place also has been offered to Frank Sommer, of Newark, dean of the law school of New York University, former counsel for the commission, and recognized as a foremost authority on public utilities. Sommer is a Republican.

The ultimate dismissal of the Utility Board has been considered as a foregone conclusion since the election of Governor Edwards. He made the board's administration the target of vigorous attacks throughout his campaign, and declared on frequent occasions that one of his first acts following his inauguration would be to oust the members from office. Public sentiment against the board has been aroused throughout the state through the ease with which utility corporations have received authority for increased rates, and dissatisfaction reached a climax several months ago when Jersey City filed charges alleging misconduct in office and neglect of the interests of the public, and asking for the removal of the members. Jersey City instituted proceedings against the board under that section of the utility act which empowers the Governor to dismiss the board after charges have been preferred and a hearing had. The city charged that in

Some Quotations

(From an Address by David M. Dunning, President, Auburn Savings Bank, before the Savings Bank Association of N. Y.)

"To acquire our full complement of mortgages has necessitated the sale of a large amount of our bond investments, a transaction not easy to bring about without some opposition among a board of trustees."

"The great objection that I have always had to meet when suggesting a sale of bonds was the loss from the purchase price of the bond."

"My contention has always been that if the proceeds of a bond sale could be invested in mortgages at a rate of a half to one per cent. more than the basis on which the bonds were sold, we were warranted in making the change no matter what the so-called loss was from the purchase price of the bonds."

fixing rates for utility service the commission did not render its decisions in accordance with the evidence, that property of the utility corporations was not actually valued by the board for rate fixing purposes and that the board discriminated against some of the smaller companies in the matter of rate returns allowed on capital invested, while allowing other corporations, particularly the Public Service, liberal concessions.

Supreme Court Justices Received by President

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—For the first time since 1913 President Wilson received to-day the Justices of the United States Supreme Court, who called to pay their respects. The court convened at noon after its summer recess and adjourned immediately until to-morrow so the Justices might visit the White House.

The annual visit to the President was omitted last year because of Mr. Wilson's illness. President Wilson received Chief Justice White and the other members of the court, who were accompanied by Attorney General Palmer and Solicitor General Friereson, in the Blue Room. The reception lasted only a few minutes.

The court reconvened to find a docket crowded with important cases. Besides half a dozen anti-trust suits, matters pending included further attacks on the prohibition amendment, suits to test the constitutionality of the anti-profiteering section of the food control act and of the Federal farm loan act, appeals in the Newberry election case and many others. Officials expect that cases designed to test the constitutionality of the suffrage amendment also will reach the court during the present session.

Master Mind Fixed Series, Swann Holds

grand jury and try to clear himself by involving others. And it doesn't mean that he will say anything when he does go before the grand jury. Attell doesn't know any more about the actual fixing than you or I. He just picked up the tip as many others did."

District Attorney Swann, however, says he is convinced that Attell could implicate "persons greater than he is." "I have the names of two well known gentlemen," Mr. Swann continued, "who are known in the words of the song, 'all around the town,' who were persuaded to bet on Chicago last year by a certain gambler. This gambler was 'in the know.' There was a rapid change of money from the suckers to him. He always won. He never lost a bet on the world's series. He is the 'master mind' who, I am convinced, knows all about the fixing deal. It is strange that persons here and there are rushing to absolve this man of all connection with the affair."

N. Y. Baseball Magnates Off to Chicago Meeting

Abolition of National Commission Will Be Considered at Conference of Owners

Owners of the New York Yankees, the New York Giants and the Boston Red Sox left for Chicago last night to attend a meeting of baseball magnates there. The meeting is to be held to consider the abolition of the National Commission and replacing it with a new ruling body for all baseball.

The magnates who left for Chicago include Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Colonel G. L. Huston, owners of the Yankees; Charles A. Stoneham and John J. McGraw, of the Giants; and Harry H. Frazee, owner of the Boston Red Sox. All were reticent as to the purpose of the conference at Chicago, but it is known that the gathering is to be held for the purpose of considering the best means for the rehabilitation of professional baseball. The movement for the abolition of the National Commission has the support of the majority of the club owners.

John J. Heydler, president of the National League and a member of the National Commission, frankly recommends the scrapping of the commission. Ban Johnson, president of the American League and a member of the commission, arrived in this city last night to witness the opening of the world series. Mr. Johnson has refused to commit himself on the plan of the magnates to abolish the commission.

Dodgers and Indians Cleared in Ball Fraud

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The Brooklyn and the Cleveland baseball clubs, contenders in the world series which opens to-morrow, were cleared of any connection with the baseball scandal, so far as evidence presented to the Cook County Grand Jury is concerned. State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne and his assistant, Hartley Replogle, who is in charge of the baseball inquiry which already has resulted in the indictment of eight Chicago White Sox players on charges of throwing games in last year's series, to-night issued statements declaring that no evidence or testimony in any way implicating any member of this year's pennant winners has come before the grand jury.

The grand jury will reconvene to-morrow afternoon in a special session with nothing on the docket but the baseball investigation. A group of baseball officials and players have been subpoenaed, and it is planned to call more later, according to Mr. Replogle, who said he believed the inquiry would last several weeks.

Among those scheduled to appear to-morrow are "Kid" Gleason, manager of the White Sox; Hughie Jennings, manager of the Detroit Tigers; John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants; "Tip" O'Neill, former Western League president, and confidant of Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox; Jean Dubuc, former Detroit pitcher, now with Toledo; Benny Kauff, New York National outfielder, and Fred Toney, New York National pitcher.

Trace New Coughlin Clew Police Believe Traveling Bag May Contain Child's Body

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Oct. 4.—Augusto Pasquale, "the crank" who is awaiting trial in the Montgomery County jail for the kidnapping of Blakely Coughlin, is said by the authorities to-day to have added to his confession that he entered the Coughlin home for the purpose of robbery and had no thought of stealing the child until he saw it in its crib.

Pasquale still refuses to tell what he did with the traveling bag he had with him at the time the police were searching for it, in the belief that it may contain the missing child's body. The prisoner said the baby was in good health when he last saw him.

Gunmen Hired to Rob Philadelphia Gamblers

One of Four Caught in Raid Confesses, Say Police, Who Seek Fifth

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—Five gunmen were brought to this city from New York more than a week ago in a carefully laid plot to rob gambling houses and large individual winners, according to a confession the police say was made to-day by Christopher Murano, who is in a hospital with two bullet wounds in his stomach.

Murano was wounded early yesterday when a squad of police raided an alleged gambling house and found the
